

Betty Rae Bacon

June 24, 1946 - May 29, 2020

Betty Rae Bacon was born on June 24, 1946 in Independence, Louisiana. She is daughter of Irma Odessa Davis Humbles and Ernest Addison, the loving Mother of Stafford Addison, Tewana Addison, and George Perry and the devoted Grandmother and Great-Grandmother of many.

Betty Rae was a lifelong resident of Amite, Louisiana where she raised her family with pride. She loved her community, her family and friends, but nothing compared to the love she had for her lifelong partner, Parker " June Bug" Burns. Betty Rae enjoyed sitting on her front porch speaking to all who passed by, talking on the phone with her best friends, and of course loving on and taking care of her many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Betty Rae accepted Christ into her heart as a young woman and enjoyed teaching his works to her growing family. She was a member of Butler A.M.E. Church in Amite, Louisiana.

Betty Rae is survived by her son, George Perry, of Amite, Louisiana, her sister, Lillie Mae Irving, of Los Angeles, California, and her many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended-family, and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents, her daughter, her son seven siblings, and one grandchild.
