

Cassandra Butler

April 2, 1975 - May 6, 2024

Cassandra, truly an angel unaware- always radiating, Love, Joy and Peace, especially regarding her family. I feel blessed to have known Cassandra- certainly one of those especial people who come into ourselves, remain in our hearts, and somehow we are never quite the same. Cassandra will always remain in my heart and the hearts of so many. Condolences and prayers to Cassandra's family with love.

“ Cassandra was one of the very few people that you encounter during life who leaves such a special, wonderful, heart-warming and comforting impression on you. She was such a pleasure to talk to. She was sincerely interested in other's lives and she just effortlessly exuded warmth. She proudly shared how much she loved and was devoted to her husband and two girls who she was raising so beautifully. Her death was a shock and knowing this world is without her has me very sad and especially feeling very sympathetic to her family. She was one of a kind. If you knew her, you were blessed by her touching soul. -Desiree Willoz Drake

“ I will miss you so much my sweet friend. My memories of Lakeview always include you. I regret never meeting your girls yet I feel I know them from our many conversations. You were the best mother, friend and coworker. I pray for you often but I know that you are walking with Jesus and fulfilling your destiny. Love always, Cathy Williams
