

Donald Ray Dominick

August 4, 1982 - December 5, 2023

Donald Ray Dominick was born on August 4, 1982, to Donald Ray Smith and Doris Dantzler Coe. Donald “D.J.” Dominick departed this life on Tuesday, December 5, 2023.

D.J. grew up in Springfield, LA and later relocated to Picayune, MS where he attended Picayune High School. He was a huge sports fan, especially of football. But he had a special passion for boxing. He won several matches and held the Championship belt for his division for a season. Aside from sports, D.J. was known as “Mr. Facebook LIVE” where he brought laughter to many of his friends who he referred to as “fans”!

Despite his active lifestyle, “big-talk” and courageous attitude, D.J. had so much love in his heart. He gave his life to Christ and was baptized under the leadership of Pastor Nathan Wall at Victory In Christ.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his son, Kshune Magee of Springfield, LA; his daughters, Kali Christoval of Amite, LA and D’Myrie Dominick of Roseland, LA; one grandson, Kylin Johnson of Albany, LA; his loving devoted mother Doris Dantzler Coe of Slidell, LA; maternal grandmother, Mamie Dantzler of Springfield, LA; his father, Donald Ray (Felicia) Smith of Hammond, LA ; a brother, Jarvis Dantzler; four sisters, Kimberly Dominick, Renarda Dominick, Krystal (Andrew)Tyler and Jalisa Harland; four nephews, Michael, Jyden, Andrew and Khaza; five nieces, Mykel, Nickila, Jardae, Jariah and Heaven; special sister figures, Retta Felder and Jerrie Dantzler; ALL of his female cousins that he had a special bond with; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandmother, Inola Smith and maternal grandfather Obie J. Dantzler Jr

Cemetery Details

Galilee Springfield Cemetery

La-43
Springfield, LA 70462

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

DEC 16. 12:00 PM (CT)

Victory In Christ of Louisiana
26012 LA-42
Holden , LA 70744

Burial

DEC 16 (CT)

Galilee Springfield Cemetery
La-43
Springfield, LA 70462