Doyle A. "Tippy" Bartholomew was born in Buras, LA on January 25, 1959 to the late Herbert & Clarice Bartholomew. Tippy worked in the oilfield for 44 years as a Crane Operator. He loved being around friends and family enjoying the outdoors & watching his kids and grandkids grow up.

He is survived by his devoted wife Stacie, his brother Neal Bartholomew (Jacqueline), his Uncle Ray Duplessis (Melanie), son in law to Johnny & Brenda Mioc, brother in law to Kristal & Derrick Courville. Nephew Wade Bartholomew (Jeanett) & Niece Whitney Close (Late Brad Close). He has loved spoiling and loving on his 14 grandchildren & 4 great grandchildren. They have some great stories to share like him tricking Adrianna to lick a lemon fish.. He swore it tasted like a lemon.

“ I'm Abigail the granddaughter mentioned in the obituary.

I looked up to him so bad, wanted to cook like him and work just like him. But I realize I was entirely too late to spend time with him or anyone because of how distant I've been with everyone.

I loved him so much, even talked about opening a restaurant and cooking like him.

Love you all ❤️
