

Nicole Moore

February 22, 1972 - November 13, 2025

Nicole “Nikki” Moore was born in New Orleans, Louisiana to the late Ruby Moore on February 22, 1972. She worked in the Tangipahoa Parish School System for many years as an educator and teaching multiple subjects. She grew up in Independence, Louisiana which was also where she graduated high school. Thereafter, she moved to Hammond where she attended Southeastern University graduating with a Bachelor’s Degree in Sociology.

Nicole leaves to cherish her memory, her two sons Hurlen and Anthony Guillory; her brothers Jerry Moore (Judy), Jeffery Moore (Andrea), Raymond Moore (Shelly), and Michael Moore (Carol).

She is preceded in death by her mother, Ruby Moore, her brothers Anthony, and Derrick Moore.

Nicole loved helping others in need which was one of her many God given gifts; she made time for others, but her sons would encourage her to focus and take time for herself. Although this was a heartfelt sentiment, she always knew and felt the presence of a higher calling in her life. Nicole’s higher purpose displayed this extraordinary service for the Lord with honor, dignity, and respect.

Nicole loved preparing scrumptious meals of fried chicken for Hurlen and whatever Anthony's heart desired. She left wonderful, fond memories with her sons, family, and friends. One such memory was when she drove everyone around the Bahamas in a local Bahamian rental car, but she could not read a map! She was convinced that Anthony and Hurlen were drunk, so she refused to let them drive. This was who she was: a person that acknowledged the right things to do in life. This will remain as a constant reminder of a life well lived.

Nicole's love and wisdom given to her sons and everyone around her will be cherished and never forgotten. The loss we feel is also a lesson learned which has become a blessing in disguise. Although we lost our Mom, I know we all gained an Angel because the night sky is a little brighter now.

I meet Nicole years ago when we both worked at Walmart. We always talked when we would see each other either at Walmart shopping or at Planet Fitness. She was a very sweet person! We talked about a month ago about her brothers and their wives! I know most of them and I didn't know they were her brothers. We talked about her sweet snl, that I personally know!! This is a very shocking because I was telling about me experiencing grief over losing my son!

“ Nicole and I met when I worked at Walmart. She and I realized we lived in the same subdivision almost 30yrs. Although she was a very private person. She never met a stranger. She was bold and straightforward. Always had a beautiful smile. She had a passion for people. She always lifted others up in prayer. Her boys and my daughter is around the same aged. She always said one son was outspoken like her and the other one was quite and humble. She was Mrs fix it. She painted her house, did her floors, planted floors, and always worked out at the gym. I was like girl. I have to pay somebody to do those things for me. Im a girly girl. She said I was raised with all brothers. So she was scared to get her hands dirty. We shared some memorable moments that I'll cherish for ever. My prayers are with her son's and family. Rest in peace neighbor.... 🙏

“ She had such a beautiful, vibrant, warm spirit. Her smile alone would light up any room. We would often cross paths whether it was at the gym or grocery store and would always pick up where we left off. I will miss your hugs, kind words and inspirational messages!!! Love you always 💙 #Gone2Soon

“ *Nicole was my little, big sister!! She was my rida!! We met in 1984 attending upward bound. We have been family ever since!!! A couple of months ago, she said Sharon remember I used to try and get you to break the rules at upward bound but you never would. All you wanted to do was play basketball!! We would laugh at this so much!! She and I would beat all the boys in basketball at upward bound. Nicole was also a comedian- she kept me laughing!! She said you laughing but I'm telling you the truth!! Nicole and I may not have talked everyday but when we talked or met up at Fiery Crab in Baton Rouge, it was like where we left off the last time!! This woman supported me in everything, and I supported her. We didn't have to advertise it!! She came to work for me at Hammond Eastside Lower this year!! She was so supportive and helpful to everyone!! I knew she came there to pray up and down the halls for me. She knew what I've been experiencing, and my sister was there for me!!! My heart is broken!! I love her forever!!!!
I'm the friend that sent the solace spray!!*
