Pamela Christine Hirst Obituary for Prayer Card^[1]_[SEP] October 15, 1977 – April 17, 2026

Pamela Christine Hirst, age 47, passed away on April 17, 2026. She was born on October 15, 1977, in Monroe, Wisconsin, to her loving parents, Roger Hirst and Elizabeth Hirst.

Pamela was a dedicated accountant and bookkeeper who took pride in her work and the trust others placed in her. Known for her sharp mind and strong sense of independence, she lived life on her own terms and was never afraid to go against the grain.

She had a deep love for music, especially hits from the 1960s and 1970s, enjoying all genres and often filling her home with timeless melodies. Pamela also had a passion for candles, creating a warm and comforting space wherever she lived. In the kitchen, she was a fantastic cook who brought people together through her meals.

Pamela moved to New Orleans simply because she fell in love with its culture, embracing the music, food, and vibrant spirit that made the city feel like home. She shared a profound and enduring love with the love of her life partner, Nicholas James Dupre. Their bond was a source of strength, comfort, and deep companionship, and it remained a defining part of her life.

She was a devoted dog lover and found joy and companionship in her furry friends. She will be remembered as a helpful and selfless person, always willing to lend a hand to those in need.

A proud fan of the New Orleans Saints, Pamela especially admired Jimmy Graham and never missed an opportunity to cheer on her team.

Pamela's strength, kindness, and unique spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Her memory will live on in the hearts of her family and friends.
