

Ruth Warner Foster

April 8, 1935 - November 18, 2020

Missionary Ruth Warner Foster, 85, of Amite, La. passed on November 18, 2020 peacefully at her home. Ruth Warner was born on April 8, 1935 to Mattie McGown and Robert Warner. After attending Sylvania F. Williams Grade School in New Orleans, Ruth moved to Amite, La. and continued her education at West Side High School. At the young age of 15, she met the love of her life, Joseph Foster, Sr., (whom she was married to for 65 years) and went on to have 14 children, Russell, Robert, Joseph, Jr, Roy Lee (deceased), Lee Esther, JoAnnette, Rena, Glenis, Berlin (deceased), Wylie, Hope, Samantha, Samuel, and Loletha. When Ruth had Russell, she decided to dedicate her life to being a loving wife and wonderful mother. After having her 3rd child, Joe Jr, she accepted Christ into her life and made it her mission to spread the word of God to all she knew. Ruth was known far and wide for her beautiful smile and giving spirit and most of all, for the delicious church dinners that she would often host to help raise money for the church building fund at Amite No. 1 COGIC. Ruth was a passionate churchgoer, wife, and mother, and when she wasn't filling her home with warmth and kindness, she could be found in her home raising her children and grandchildren, washing clothes, and cooking. WE WILL MISS HER GREATLY! Ruth was predeceased by her mother, Mattie McGown, her father, Robert Warner, her husband Pastor Joseph Foster, Sr., her sister, May, her brother, Melvin, her sons, Roy Lee and Berlin, and her grandsons, David Walker and LJ Sutton.
