

Sylvia Yvonne James-Moran

December 7, 1943 - January 17, 2015

Sylvia Yvonne James Moran was born December 7, 1943 to the union of Violet Royal James and David James. As a child, Sylvia was raised in Jonestown, Gretna, LA. Sylvia was the eight child of 13th siblings. She graduated from Lincoln High School which was one of her greatest accomplishments. She married the love of her life, Junius Moran, and to this union they had three daughters; Des, Darla, and LeJuenne.

Sylvia worked at Wilson, Service Merchandise, Walgreens Drug Store, Schwegmann Supermarket, Lane Bryant, Marshall, and Belle Chasse State School. She loved being a house wife and loved fishing.

Sylvia was an active longtime member of Good Hope B.C., Gretna, LA. She was a member of the choir before she accepted her calling as an Usher. She served on several ministries: Usher Board, FeedThe Multitude, Out Reach Ministries, Street Evangelizing, Vacation Bible School, gave cloths to the needed and a faithful Sunday School teacher. She loved the Lord and always talked about His goodness and was always willing to volunteer her services to the mission of the Lord.

She leaves to mourn three daughters, Des (Robert, Jr.) Sears, Darla (Sinick, Sr.) Brown, LeJuenne Fascio and stepson Arnold (Sheena) Brown. Three grandchildren; Shamia, Rory, Sinick, Jr.; three sisters: Henrietta James Craig, Myrtle (Edward) Conerly, and Nathalie James Marshall (Jimmy Ross), one brother: Elliott James, one brother-in-law Chester Moran, one sister-in-law Edna Mae Jelphi; Godchildren and host of nieces, nephews, cousins, great nieces and nephews.

Loved ones ushered before the Lord: parents, two sisters; Delores James, Thelma Kaywood, six brothers: Essick, Hillary, Joseph, Ray, Merlin, Oscar Lee James, very close sister in law: Dorothy Johnson.

She started preparing for this journey a long time ago and would always sing "This Old Building Keep on Leaning and I Got to Move to a Better Home".
