

Tara Evon Lindsey

July 7, 1981 - September 21, 2020

Tara Evon Robertson Lindsey was born to Alfred Rodgers and Phyllis M. Brown on July 7, 1981 in Hammond, La. Tara was blessed to have a second father, Phillip Clay, who reared her from an early age until her death. She later in life met and married Tharon Lindsey. Tara was a free spirit and very upbeat. Her children were her pride and joy. Tara was nicknamed "Bird" for her small frame and whenever Bird was in a room, she always left an impression once she left. Tara was normally an upbeat happy person despite her condition. She loved singing both at church and just around the house. This is one of the traits she passed on to her children and grandchildren.

She accepted Christ at an early age under the leadership of Bishop Talben P. Pope and trusted and believed in God until her transition under the leadership of Bishop Larry J. Rheams.

Tara leaves to cherish her precious memories her husband, Tharon Lindsey, her mother, Phyllis (Jamison) Brown, her fathers, Alfred (Stephanie) Rogers and Phillip (Renee) Clay, three daughters, Kiana Robertson, Orion Samuel, and Tharonae Lindsey, and two sons Ryan Robertson and Ezra Lindsey. Five brothers, Thomas (LaChaka) Robertson, Rundy Robertson, Alfred Webb, Jeffrey Rogers, and Tony Rogers. Seven sisters, Nicol Thomas, Abigail Rogers, Brandy Lee, Hailey Rogers, Rena Rogers, Angela Lewis and Destiny Rodgers. A great-aunt, Veenie English, an aunt, Evon (Donald) Williams, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She is preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Willie Thomas and

Josephine Hughes, her Aunt Irma Holden, and her brothers Andrew Thomas and Reggie Robertson.
